

Allied Commanders of World War II
Osprey Men-At-Arms series No. 120 (1982)
Text by Anthony Kemp; colour plates by Angus McBride

Contents:

Introduction

The Commanders as listed for colour plates

Colour Plates:

ACM Dowding, Admiral Cunningham, General Alexander

General Auchinleck, General Wavell, General Leclerc

Lt General Clark, General Anders, Josip Broz -Tito

Lt General Horrocks, Lt General Crerar, General Montgomery

Lt General Patton, General Eisenhower, Lt General Bradley

Maj General Gale, Maj General Ridgway, Maj General Gavin

Maj General Wingate, Lt. General Slim, General of the Army MacArthur

Marshal Timoshenko, Marshal Rokossovsky, Marshal Zhukov

Comment:

This volume offers a potted history of 24 of the most significant allied commanders of the Second World War. The main focus, naturally, is the contribution each made to the Allied cause. The secondary focus is on the various uniform abnormalities these sometimes colourfully sported. The career overviews are very broad brush and so there is very little of direct wargaming use.

--Jonathan Aird

