

The US Army of World War I

Osprey Men-At-Arms 386 (2003)
Text by Mark Henry; colour plates by Stephen Walsh

Contents:

Composition of the AEF
Organisation
Uniforms
Web Gear and Equipment
Weapons
Vehicles

Colour plates:

Infantry, cavalry and Marines in campaign dress
Airman, Military Police, General, engineer, medic, artilleryman - all in campaign dress

Comments:

About one-third of the book focuses on recruiting, training and organisation of the American Expeditionary Force. Uniforms and weapons are the other main focus. The section on Weapons covers everything from sidearms and crew-served machine guns to artillery. There is very little history or information on campaigns though some of this is provided in the plate commentaries.

